The UA College of Social & Behavioral Sciences “The People College” presents

How We’ve Changed

THURS Sept 1, 7 PM
“Changes & Challenges: Border Security Post-9/11”
Speaker: Alan Bersin, Commissioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection
Listen to an insider’s views of how 9/11 impacted national security and border politics. Bring your questions!
Location: UA Memorial Student Union, North Ballroom

THURS Sept 8, 6 PM
“What Does It Mean to Be Post-9/11? Media, Privacy, and Community”
Panelists will discuss the effects of 9/11 on our communities, with a focus on changes to our daily lives and culture.
Location: UA Education Bldg, Room 211

TUES Sept 6, 6 PM
“History, Culture, and Politics: The Setting for 9/11”
Academic experts present the historical, geopolitical, and cultural circumstances leading up to the attacks of 9/11.
Location: UA Education Bldg, Room 211

SUN Sept 11, NOON
“Rebirth”
Feature length documentary film chronicling the lives of five people coping with the aftermath of 9/11.
Location: The Loft Cinema, 3233 E. Speedway Blvd.

SAT Sept 10, 3 PM
“Once in a Promised Land”
Join author Laila Halaby in a book discussion about Jassim and Salwa, who left the deserts of Jordan for Arizona.
Location: Joel D. Valdez Main Library, 101 N. Stone Ave.

WED Sept 7, 6 PM
“What Does It Mean to Be Post-9/11? Politics, War, and Security”
Join academic experts and a retired Brigadier General (who was in the Pentagon on 9/11) for a lively discussion of how we’ve changed in the areas of security, politics, and war.
Location: UA Education Bldg, Room 211

SUN Sept 11, 3 PM
“Remembrance and Renewal: A Concert to Commemorate the Tenth Anniversary of September 11”
Performed by Tucson Chamber Artists and Tucson Symphony Orchestra. Tickets: www.uapresents.org or (520) 621-3341
Location: UA Centennial Hall

for more info: jkfinch@email.arizona.edu, (520) 260-9538
http://web.sbs.arizona.edu/college/911

The UA College of Social and Behavioral Sciences is pleased to announce an extensive program on the 10th anniversary of the tragedy of September 11, 2001. Topics include terrorism, borders and security, politics, media, and historical analysis. Events include lectures, panels, a book discussion and a film screening. All events (except the Sunday concert) are free and open to the community.